EEOC'S OPPOSITION TO NOTICE OF DEBTORS' SEVENTY-EIGHT OMNIBUS OBJECTIONS TO CLAIMS (DISALLOWANCE OF CERTAIN LATE CLAIMS)

Creditor, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") now files its Motion to in Opposition to Notice of Debtors' Seventy-Eight Omnibus Objections Claim. On May 7, 2010, Debtors filed Seventy-Sixth Omnibus claim alleging that the EEOC filed its claim untimely and therefore its claim shall be dismissed. For the following reasons the EEOC opposes the Notice of Debtors' Seventy-Eight Objections to Claim.

- 1. On September 25, 2007, EEOC filed a lawsuit against Circuit City, in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, alleging sexual harassment and hostile work environment. Civil Action Number 07-4006
- 2. On November 7, 2008, the parties reached a Settlement in agreement for the Amount $200,000.00.
- 3. On November 7, 2008, the Hon. USDJ Legrome D. Davis, issued an order under rule 7.1 of the Local Rules of Civil procedure awarding the parties sixty days to consummate the settlement.
- 4. On November 11, 2008, Circuit City Stores, Inc. et al filed for Bankruptcy Protection under Title 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court.

- 5. Pursuant to and order entered by the US Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, Richmond Division, Bankruptcy Court Order entered on December 10, 2008 the deadline for governmental claims was May 11, 2008.
- 6. In May 8, 2009, the EEOC filed proof of claim with a copy of the settlement agreement. Claim number 12921.

IN CONCLUSION: Debtors' position that the EEOC's claims must be dismissed for untimely is erroneous since the EEOC filed its proof of claim three days prior to the deadline to file governmental claims.
